York County Parks Seeks Volunteers

York County Department of Parks and Recreation has volunteer opportunities available. Volunteers are being sought to work at the front counter at the Nixon County Park Nature Center near Jacobus. Front counter volunteers greet visitors, answer telephones and do an assortment of administrative duties. Shifts are available Tuesday through Saturday, morning and afternoon and Sunday afternoons. Also, volunteers are being sought as bluebird box coordinators. These volunteers are assigned one or more bluebird boxes in a specific county park. Currently, monitors are needed for the boxes located along the Heritage Rail Trail County Park. Individual, couples and groups are invited to participate. For more information, contact Amber Carothers at Nixon County Park at (717) 428-1961.
